

MOROCCO

Unlock the Vibrant Tapestry of Morocco

Dive into the enchanting world of this exotic land through our latest newsletter

At GlobeBleu, our tailor-made tours cater to your preferences, location, activities and duration.

READ ON to see our recommended tour.

Just like a tapestry is a woven artwork with intricate patterns and colours, Morocco weaves together a captivating tapestry of smells, sights, sounds, and flavours.

A Journey of Discovery

Begin your journey in Rabat, the country's capital city.

Rabat showcases a harmonious fusion of contemporary design and Moroccan heritage. Discover the magnificent Kasbah of the Udayas and its bustling souks.

For a taste of the bohemian lifestyle, we recommend Asilah, a picturesque coastal town adorned with blue and white walls, and artistic beauty at every corner. Its charming medina surrounded by 15th century ramparts known for its murals and annual arts festival.

Next, make your way to Tangier, a city known for its artistic flair, unique souvenirs and traditional crafts. Tangier was once an international zone and is home to the only US National monument abroad, the Tangier American Legation which now houses a Museum

Start planning your dream trip today!

Venturing inland, you'll arrive in Chaouen, known for its striking blue-washed buildings and where leather and weaving workshops line the cobbled streets. Visit famous landmarks such as the red walled Kasbah, a 15th century fortress and dungeon

Just a short distance from Fes lies Meknes, a UNESCO World Heritage site, known for its imperial past. Morocco's famous ancient gate, Bab Mansour leads you into the 17th century city with its opulent palaces and stunning city walls.

Continue your tour by journeying to Fes, an architectural marvel with its 9th century medina, the oldest in the world. Fes will mesmerise you with its medieval architecture, vibrant tanneries, ceramics, skilled metalsmiths and aromatic spice markets.

Embracing the final stages

For a true desert experience, venture into the Sahara Desert and reach Merzouga and its majestic sand dunes. Here, you can enjoy sand-boarding and camel treks or simply relax in the dunes and enjoy the sunrise or sunset.

Arriving in the vibrant city of Marrakech, you will love the bustling souks, vibrant squares, and iconic landmarks. Not to be missed is Jemaa el-Fnaa, where musicians, acrobats, and storytellers put on mesmerising performances.

Making your way back towards the Atlas Mountains, be prepared to be amazed by the dramatic beauty of the Dades Gorges. Marvel at the towering rock formations and experience the thrill of the winding roads that traverse this natural wonder.

The tour continues to Taroudant, also known as "Little or Marrakech." Encircled by ancient walls, this charming more peaceful town offers many top attractions, a coastline and hiking opportunities in the Atlas Mountains

During your magical journey, you will encounter a land of rich design traditions, awe-inspiring landscapes, and unforgettable experiences. From snow-capped peaks to Saharan dunes, from astonishing gorges to immersive tented camps, and from the fragrant scents of orange blossom to the intoxicating aroma of roses, Morocco truly offers a sensory adventure like no other.

Lastly, you'll reach Essaouira, famous for Argan Oil production and known for its bohemian vibes, world-class surfing and its iconic blue fishing boats supplying its renowned fresh seafood.

Want to know more?

Send us an email

Our Top Tips

Q&A with Bob Preston

Q: When did you first go to Morocco?

Bob: 35 years ago, and since then, I've been returning about once a year for travel shows and property reviews

Q: Why did you choose Morocco?

Bob: Initially for work purposes. I was involved in the restructure of a bank and worked on bid projects. I was primarily based in Rabat and Casablanca.

Q: What's your favourite dish?

Bob: There are so many but I would say my favourites are lamb tagine and chicken pastilla. For dessert, nothing beats the cornes de gazelle.

Q: What is your favourite site/landmark?

Bob: Ait Benhaddou, this ancient fortified city is a UNESCO World Heritage Site and holds immense historical significance.

Q: What do you love about Morocco?

Bob: The design, architecture, diverse landscapes, vibrant colours, and the exceptional food, I studied with top Michelin-star chefs which inspired me to open my very own Cafe Fes, an urban resort/cafe in Southeast Asia, highlighting Moroccan fare.

BEST TIME TO TRAVEL

APRIL, MAY, JUNE
SEPTEMBER TO NOVEMBER

Although for the weather, the best time to visit Morocco is spring and autumn, when temperatures are nice and warm across the higher regions. There are many festivals held in the hotter month of June. Average daily temperatures in June reach 35 degrees.

TRIP DURATION

2 - 3 WEEKS

With our extensive firsthand knowledge of Morocco, we recommend a 2-3 week tour, this will enable you to see the highlights we have presented in a leisurely manner.

MUST TRY

Throughout this incredible journey, indulge in Morocco's tantalizing cuisine. From the fragrant tagines and couscous dishes to the delicious mint teas and honey-drenched pastries, each meal is a feast for the senses.