Cycling & Culinary Tours

Puglia is known for providing access to the finest and freshest seafood from both the Adriatic and Ionian Sea, combine that with whole grains, vegetables and olive oil and you have the classic example of a healthy Mediterranean diet. Of course any great meal wouldn't be complete without a fine wine and mouth-watering desserts and pastries.

You can experience all of this and take in the countryside, culture, architecture and beaches on this cycling and culinary tour

TAILOR-MADE

Puglia Full Indulgence

Lying between 2 coastlines, Puglia offers miles and miles of unspoilt beaches, crystal clear waters, spectacular cliffs and rocky coves. Its diverse mix of architectural structures, cultural sites, and warm hospitality can be traced back to its long and rich history from Byzantine to Norman occupation.

Not only is Puglia is one of the largest producers of durum wheat used predominantly in pasta and in many of the region's bread, the presence of 50 million olive trees makes it the number one producer of olive oil globally.

Discover all that Puglia has to offer on a full indulgence tour

TAILOR-MADE

Puglia is a treasure trove of history, culture, and natural beauty just waiting to be explored so if you're looking for a unique and unforgettable travel experience, Puglia is the perfect destination for you.
